Priorities

For me talking about priorities is easy. God is first, family and other people second, and then tasks or job third. The problem is that getting those priorities in opposite order is also easy. The job and many of the tasks that “we have to do” scream for attention. Family and other people may or may not demand our response when we neglect them. At times neglecting God does not seem to have any negative consequences. But in reality neglecting our relationship with God has the greatest negative consequence of all. And when we put Him first, we experience the greatest positive consequence. Let’s spend some time thinking about making God our number one priority. And of course if we do, we will also make prayer a priority. Check out the opportunity to hear Anne Graham Lotz speak on effective prayer and make it a priority to attend. Nothing is more important than loving God with all of our heart.

EFFECTIVE PRAYER

“... for such a time as this...”

If My people, who are called by My name, will humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land.

2 Chronicles 7:14

Dear Church Family,

I know the first hand the power of prayer really and truly works. I thank God for each and everyone of you who have been praying for me thru the past year.

When your life changes instantly you are so grateful for your family, friends, prayer chains, cards, flowers, encouragement and especially the love of God's people.

Thank you for your love and I pray our precious Lord will continue to bless each of you as you continue to share His love. "Rejoice always, pray continually give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Jesus Christ." 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Why Not Sing?

We need your voice in choir. The only ability you need is to be able to carry a tune (of course, the correct tune), and willingness and commitment to allow God to sing through you. You'll receive a blessing, but better than that, you'll be a blessing! Talk with Chuck about it. We begin working on Christmas soon, and you'll wanna be a part of that!

Annual Apple-Pickin'

Friday, September 28

Leave church 7:30am

Bring your lunch & we'll provide some drinks. See Chuck to sign up.
